

MODEL 902

FEATURES

Model 902

Both standard exterior and partitioned interior applications requiring high light transmittance and visibility are satisfied by using the durable and attractive Model 902.

Standard grid patterned glass

• LWF thick construction, 600 Ft. structural aluminum alloy with integral weathering for maximum durability

• Excellent support and construction help meet and far exceeds and adds to their durability

• Tongue and groove mounting

• High quality bridge frames and support system

• Standard finish is high finish, but standard is available while in house to complement most building designs

• Available with insulated glass, 20% photogen, solar glass, tempered glass, polycarbonate and laminated glass options

• Variety of options available to customize a door to your design and performance

